Description

This Azimut 50 is finished to the very highest of standards and its Italian flair is immediately apparent when you step aboard with its iridescent blue hull, American Walnut interior panel and designer fabrics. This boat is truly distinctive and will appeal to purchasers wanting something different.

Configured with an amidships owners cabin with its own ensuite, a double VIP guest cabin, a downstairs lounge, an office, a day head and shower, spacious main saloon with rear galley adjacent to the cockpit, large flybridge, two helm stations, an outside seating area on the front deck, a covered cockpit with seating and a table aft and a substantial boarding platform with electric tender launching system.

If you are looking for that boat that will stand out in the bay take a look over this extremely well presented, late model vessel.
